

DALLAS CHAPTER MEETING COINCIDES WITH INNOVATION CONFERENCE

The Dallas Chapter held its first meeting of the year to coincide with Dallas Startup Week, an annual conference focused on innovation, emerging technologies, and entrepreneurship. The newly elected officers of the chapter hosted the meeting: Robert Breville (President), Mark Hammons (VP), and Travis Covert (Treasurer). Sam Roberts, the Mountain Western Regional AOC Director, was the guest speaker.

er. Entrepreneurs and techies from the conference attended and joined the ranks as the newest members of the Old Crows. In addition to aerospace and defense companies, venture capital and technology companies such as Technium, Juice-BX, and Startup-Evo were represented. This was the largest Dallas chapter meeting in over 10 years. All Dallas area Crows are invited to all chapter events.

